Course Description
Tools for random data analysis (including types of random data, mean values, mean-square values, probability density and distribution functions, moments and characteristic functions, and spectral and correlation analysis); bias and random error estimates in data measurements; input-output system models; and measurement examples.

Course Pre-Requisites / Co-Requisites: n/a

Course Objectives
The objective of this course is to explore the application of time- and frequency-domain methods to time series data. The course builds upon the fundamental principles introduced in statistics and numerical & experimental methods and is intended primarily for graduate students interested in data analyses. The course emphasizes the understanding, application, and interpretation of various methods. Statistical functions (e.g., probability density functions, moments, etc.), time-domain (e.g., auto- and cross-correlation) functions, and frequency-domain (e.g., auto- and cross-spectra) methods are derived and applied to practical engineering problems. The application of the methods presented in the course will be illustrated via homework problems that utilize MATLAB. Exams will also be used to reinforce important aspects of the methods. Finally, a project will apply a specific analysis to engineering data applicable to the student's research topic.

Materials and Supply Fees: n/a

Required Textbooks and Software
- Student version or standard version of Matlab (required)

Attendance Policy, Class Expectations, and Make-Up Policy
It is expected that this course will require at least 12-15 hours of effort per week when you consider time spent for lectures, reading assignments, homework, and re-writing of your class notes. I also expect that you will attend every lecture. If you cannot attend a lecture, please notify me prior to class. I strongly recommend that you implement the "Five Times Strategy" for learning in this class. This requires that you cover the course material at least 5 times before exams. The first time that you cover the material is when you perform your reading assignment before class. The second time that you cover the material is during lecture. The third time that you cover the material is when you re-write your "lecture set" of notes that includes material from lecture and the reading assignments, including all derivations and your additions. The fourth time that you cover the material is when you do your homework assignments. Finally, the fifth time that you cover the material is when you study for the exam.

your exams. This technique will help you master the material and also will provide you with a comprehensive set of notes to potentially teach from one day.

The course will be taught from a Tablet PC using our typeset notes, which will be posted on the website. These notes are meant to accompany the assigned readings from the text and reference books. They are not to be considered substitutes. You will be responsible for both the material covered in class and the assigned readings.

You are expected to show up on time for class. Please turn off all cell phones prior to the start of class. You are permitted to have a laptop, tablet etc. to take notes with. If you are a distraction in class, you will be asked to leave. Please do not bring food to class.

Re-grading Policy: Any re-grade requests must be submitted in writing within one week after return of the graded paper. The written request must explain in detail what you want the grader to do and where you believe he/she has made a mistake in grading. The request must have a date on the top of the page, your name, your telephone number(s), and e-mail address.

Miscellaneous Policies: Students will be held responsible for knowledge of all scheduling and policy announcements made in class. If you send an email please do this via Canvas and also list a phone number where you could be reached. Please use the discussion feature of Canvas as much as possible.

Make-up Exam/HW Policy: There are no make-up exams and there are no-make up HWs. I am already dropping the low regular exam score. A missed exam will count as your dropped exam. If you have a valid excused absence, I will not hold the missed HW against you. I will just grade you based on the other HWs.

Excused absences must be in compliance with university policies in the Graduate Catalog (http://gradcatalog.ufl.edu/content.php?catoid=10&navoid=2020#attendance) and require appropriate documentation.

Students Requiring Accommodations
Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, https://www.dso.ufl.edu/drc) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.

Course Evaluation
Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing online evaluations at https://evaluations.ufl.edu/evals. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results/.

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, "We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment." The Honor Code (https://sccr.dso.ufl.edu/policies/student-honor-code-student-conduct-code/) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.
