Attendance Policy, Class Expectations, and Make-Up Policy

Attendance policies

- Attendance is expected and encouraged for all students, but it will not be recorded.
- Excused absences must be consistent with university policies in the undergraduate catalog (<https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>) and require appropriate documentation.

Class policies

- If you need to miss a class, please make appropriate arrangements with a classmate for class notes.
- Cheating or any other form of academic dishonesty will result in failure and prosecution according to University policies.
- Students are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that does not interfere with other students' learning. Disruptive or distracting behavior is prohibited, and Prof. Greenslet reserves the right to temporarily or permanently dismiss distracting students from the classroom.

- Students are responsible for all announcements, assignments, etc., made during lectures, including changes in the scheduling of lecture topics, homework assignments, and exams. Class absence is not a valid excuse for being unprepared.
- Any changes in the schedule or assignments will be communicated to the class via e-mail using your Gatorlink (@ufl.edu) e-mail address and the course website. You are responsible for monitoring your mailbox and the website regularly for any class notices.

Homework policies

- Homework must be turned in through UF e-learning system by the start of class on the due date. Do NOT slip it under Prof. Greenslet’s door. In general, late homework will not be accepted.
- Homework must be neat and legible and show all major steps.
- Homework must be on 8.5” x 11” paper. Homework must have the assignment number, your name, and the date of submission in the upper right-hand corner of the first sheet.
- Homework must have the page number in the bottom right corner of every page.
- Multiple sheets must be placed in the proper order.
- Failure to adhere to the formatting requirements could result in loss of points.
- You may discuss the homework with your classmates; however, all students must provide the solutions themselves. Copying of homework will be treated as academic dishonesty. Use of a solution manual or any online answer source is also considered dishonest.

Exam policies

- The first two exams will be held during the regular class period on dates that will be announced later. The final exam will be held at the time assigned by the Registrar.
- It is the students’ responsibility to demonstrate their knowledge on exams. In order to be able to grade your work, it must be neat, be legible, and follow logical steps with all work shown. Partial credit may be given for work that can be followed and where the nature and magnitude of the mistake can be identified. No credit will be given for correct answers with insufficient indication of how they were obtained.
- Students should be aware that their work is submitted under the honor code pledge taken by UF students. The pledge is On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment. Students can learn more about the UF honor code at the UF Student Government website. (<https://sccr.dso.ufl.edu/>)

Students Requiring Accommodations

Students with disabilities who experience learning barriers and would like to request academic accommodations should connect with the disability Resource Center by visiting <https://disability.ufl.edu/students/get-started/>. It is important for students to share their accommodation letter with their instructor and discuss their access needs, as early as possible in the semester.

Course Evaluation

Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at <https://gatorevals.ua.ufl.edu/students/>. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via <https://ufl.bluera.com/ufl/>. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at <https://gatorevals.ua.ufl.edu/public-results/>.

In-Class Recording

Students are allowed to record video or audio of class lectures. However, the purposes for which these recordings may be used are strictly controlled. The only allowable purposes are (1) for personal educational use, (2) in connection with a complaint to the university, or (3) as evidence in, or in preparation for, a criminal or civil proceeding. All other purposes are prohibited. Specifically, students may not publish recorded lectures without the written consent of the instructor.

A “class lecture” is an educational presentation intended to inform or teach enrolled students about a particular subject, including any instructor-led discussions that form part of the presentation, and delivered by any instructor hired or appointed by the University, or by a guest instructor, as part of a University of Florida course. A class lecture does not include lab sessions, student presentations, clinical presentations such as patient history, academic exercises involving solely student participation, assessments (quizzes, tests, exams), field trips, private conversations between students in the class or between a student and the faculty or lecturer during a class session.

Publication without permission of the instructor is prohibited. To “publish” means to share, transmit, circulate, distribute, or provide access to a recording, regardless of format or medium, to another person (or persons), including but not limited to another student within the same class section. Additionally, a recording, or transcript of a recording, is considered published if it is posted on or uploaded to, in whole or in part, any media platform, including but not limited to social media, book, magazine, newspaper, leaflet, or third party note/tutoring services. A student who publishes a recording without written consent may be subject to a civil cause of action instituted by a person injured by the publication and/or discipline under UF Regulation 4.040 Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code.

University Honesty Policy

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment." The Conduct Code (<https://sccr.dso.ufl.edu/process/student-conduct-code/>) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.

Software Use

All faculty, staff, and students of the University are required and expected to obey the laws and legal agreements governing software use. Failure to do so can lead to monetary damages and/or criminal penalties for the individual violator. Because such violations are also against University policies and rules, disciplinary action will be taken as appropriate. We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to uphold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity.
